RADIO PERSONALITIES FACE-OFF IN A CULINARY CHALLENGE TO SUPPORT A GREAT CAUSE

Ewing, NJ –This Wednesday, November 13th, New Jersey 101.5 on-air personalities Big Joe Henry and Dennis Malloy will compete against each other in a culinary challenge at “The New Jersey 101.5 Cook-Off” at L’Affaire Fine Catering, 1099 US 22 East in Mountainside, NJ. The event is made possible by Top Line Appliance, CaraBella Olive Oil, and Lioni Latticini, Inc. Fresh Mozzarella.

Attendees will pay $15 for admission to sample food from participating New Jersey restaurants and view the cook-off, which will include cooking demonstrations of appetizers and main entrées by the two popular radio personalities. Restaurants who will offer samples to attendees include The Ark Pub and Eatery of Point Pleasant Beach, Hudson Bread of North Bergen, Langosta Lounge of Asbury Park, Le Bretzel of Elizabeth, Maddalenas Cheesecake and Catering Inc. of Ringoes, Houlihan’s of New Jersey, Two Fish Five Loaves of Union, and Santillo’s Brick Oven Pizza of Elizabeth.

Ten attendees will be randomly picked from the audience to judge Dennis & Big Joe’s appetizers and then entrées. At the end, a winner will be crowned best chef at New Jersey 101.5!

$5 from each ticket sold will be donated back to the Chef Romanowski Memorial Fund, a 501c3 charity that provides individuals with a passion for the culinary arts the help they need to get into a culinary school!

Brand Manager, Eric Johnson says “We’re all very excited to see the Cook-Off in action. The trash talking has been escalating on air for weeks now and will culminate tomorrow night at L’Affaire Fine Catering in Mountainside.”

Tickets are available are available at the door in limited quantities. Doors open at 6pm and the Cook-Off begins at 7pm. All ages are welcome.
